

New Website Unveiled

MNSwept.com officially released its new website on October 23, 2008. This new site has many features to facilitate MNSWept's mission. In addition to being a communication tool, it also features a resource and document library. Online training sessions are also planned. The website will also be used to for online registrations.

MNSWEPT's New WEBSITE features:

- Completely database driven site engines
- News, Training, FAQs and Library sections for easy information retrieval
-

Online Registration:

- Users can register for email notifications and online registration.
- Full access to documents and registration section is availalbe to registered users.
- Library - stores PNGs, PDFs, DOCs, XLSs, GIFs and JPEGs online for easy use
- News feed manager monitors RSS feeds from various agencies to keep you up to date
- Archive manager stores older items for references.
- Polls/Surveys